

S-9004 The Star-Spangled Banner

1. O say, can you see, by the down's ear - ly light, What so proud - ly we strips and bright stars, thro' the per - il - ous fight, O'er the ram - parts we hailed at the twi - light's last - - - Whoe broad And the rock - ets' red glare, the bombs burst - ing in air Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there. O say, does that Star - span - gled Ban - ner yet wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

1 O say, can you see, by the down's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad strips and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?

*And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that Star-spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?*

2 O thus be it ever when free men shall stand
Between their loved homes and the war's desolation;
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n rescued land
Praise the Pow'r that hath made and preserved us a nation!

*Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just;
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust!"
And the Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.*
